

Going to the Farm

Flesch-Kincaid: 1.9 | Words: 88

The boys and girls are going to visit the farm. Farmer Sprout has goats, pigs, and chicks in the yard. The goats are white, black, and brown. They jump and play and chase each other around. The brown goat follows the children around. The pigs are rolling in the mud in their pigsty. They make loud noises and want more food. They are eating apples and corn. The chicks are yellow and brown and are pecking the ground. The boys and girls are happy to see the animals.