Katie was six years old. She wanted a puppy. She loved playing with the puppies at the pet store. Every day she asked her mother for a puppy. Her mother said, "Maybe when you are older and can take care of the puppy."

Katie was sad she could not have a puppy. On the last day of school, Katie was very excited for summer. Katie got home from school to find a big box in the front yard. The box had a red bow on top. She ran to the box and opened the lid. Inside was a brown, fluffy puppy. He jumped into her arms and gave her doggie kisses. Katie was so happy to have a puppy. She named him Teddy.
